Bill -

I don't believe I'm finally signing this! It's only been 3 months
now. Late as usual but I promise
I won't ditch.

All the fun we've had together
this year could never be forgotten!
I would say we never laughed because these 3 weeks were hell but every date we had was a hell! I don't think we ever went out & didn't have fun!

Could we ever forget Buddy and Tony? The times we wrecked Buddy's car (tore out the radio & hell knows what else) were unforgivable really.
We were sorta stupid to double so many times - & the people we chase to double with. I think we should rent out binoculars from now on! Remember the Sweetheart's Dance (that dress I wore!) and how it rained afterward & my feet got wet and the mud!

Every thing I remember about

"O, Call Back Yesterday, Bid Time Return."

The Class of 1966 — yesterday, the present: today, the past. All that is left now are the memories, memories recorded here in this yearbook. For that is the purpose of a yearbook, to be a memory of youth, to be a culmination of experience throughout an entirely unique four years. Four years — a long time but a short time; an exhilarating time but a sobering time; a perplexing time but a satisfying time. Remember when those four years began?

It was September 1962, our first day of high school. As we clamored into the auditorium, outwardly we exhibited a front of false confidence, but inwardly we were all a little frightened, a little awed, and mostly just excited. Then suddenly, never knowing exactly how it happened, we were Freshmen. (Yes, believe it or not, Seniors, once, a long, long time ago, we were Freshmen.) The first few weeks were spent, finding our way around, discovering rooms, meeting teachers, and making new friends. The rest of the year was spent finding ourselves, planting our feet firmly on the ground, establishing roots, and preparing for the three years ahead.

In our Sophomore year, working from our Freshman foundation, we branched out into the sports, clubs, organizations, and other activities that add life and spirit to North High. Operating the coat check, we also took on more responsibility as a class. In the mass turmoil after basketball games were heard such cries as "Hey, what happened to No. 156?" or "But, sir, that has to be your coat!" Despite our occasional bungling, the class treasury grew steadily, and in May with the choosing of the Prom Committee, we began looking forward to another year.

The Junior year was very simply a year for points, one thing stood out in almost everyone's mind — the Prom. Deep under the ice at the North Pole, the Prom Committee toiled in secret to meet the May 22 deadline, while the rest of the class made flowers, sold cokes and candy, cooked popcorn, made flowers, worked at hops, made flowers, baked for bake sales, and made leaves (?) Money poured in but also poured out just as fast. As May 22 approached, many asked apprehensively, "Will we make it?" However, with one last chaotic, exhausting, nerve-stretching week, the gym and A-cafeteria were miraculously (or perhaps wizardly) transformed into "The Land of Oz." Following the yellow-brick road and accompanied by the scarecrow, the tin woodsman, and the cowardly lion, those attending the Prom entered magical, mystical Oz and spent the night dancing outside the walls of shimmering Emerald City. With this night to remember, our Junior year came to a close.

Junior colors of maroon and white were replaced by blue and white, and at last we were SENIORS. The halls swarmed with underclassmen, but that didn't matter because we were SENIORS. Woe to any underling who forgot it! Time passed quickly but slowly. There were Homecoming when Nancy Hayes reigned over her distinguished court, an exciting and surprising basketball season, the Sweetheart's Dance where Tom and Carolyn ruled, and the Senior class play. But there was also the dreadful waiting, waiting for returns on job applications, for ACT scores, college boards, and finally those all-important letters from the colleges of our choice. What a relief to find how unwarranted our fear had been when we read those few pressure-easing words: "We are happy to inform you . . ."

Then came our very last day, and as we walked across the stage to receive our diplomas, each one of us wept a little, if not in his eyes then in his heart, for with graduation those four never-to-be-forgotten years became the past, and the future became the present.

Senior Class

Vice-President — Dennis Draper

Seniors,
Little time is left for us to use that word — SENIORS. Soon each of us will end an old life to begin a new one. For some that new life is college; for others it is a job or perhaps, marriage and a family. For each of us, however, the life ahead is new and unknown, and though we are not willing to admit it, we are all just a little frightened. Therefore, it might seem appropriate at this time to say, "Good luck!" But so often that expression carries with it a bad connotation, an unspoken "you'll need it!" I don't think you will need it, Seniors, for during the past four years you as a class have exhibited an unequalled spirit of cooperation, willingness to work, and desire to be on top — in short, a spirit that if taken along with you, will insure a successful future despite any good or bad luck that may come your way. So let me simply say: "To each one of you, may your life be filled with the greatest success and happiness in the years ahead."

Sincerely,

Gary Hoachlander

Junior Class

Dear, Friends,

This has been a year of trial and tribulation, fun and sorrow, ease and difficulty; and we have almost completed it

The Junior Year is always "The Big Money Year," which calls for hard work; but with the work, one receives a certain satisfaction which doesn't come simply from the profits. The class worker gets a personal reward in knowing that he has been part of a successful project or that he had been able to help his class. Of course, the responsibility for the biggest thrill in everyone's high school career is laid upon the shoulders of the Juniors. The Prom must be a success! It took shape in the privacy of "The Cave," the prom's workshop. The Prom Committee made diligent progress in those few months, and again the result was rewarding.

We have nearly concluded three-fourths of our high school career. There remains just one more precious year at good ol' North Hi. Let's make it a tremendous year to be proud of, with memories that will linger throughout our entire lives.

Good luck from a friend,

Charles
Barnhart

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Thus far we, the Class of "68," after getting off to a belated start, have dug in and braved the hardships and humiliations of a freshman class and have been promoted into the work-filled world of sophomores with the largest treasury ever to be held by any class in the same position. As sophomores we have had two beneficial hops and many very successful coat checks at basketball games.

We have proven ourselves to be a hardworking and persevering class as freshmen and sophomores, and next year as Juniors, we will have to, and are going to, retain these characteristics and put on "a," if not "the," most spectacular Junior-Senior Prom in North High's history.

The class of "68" has the potential to be Greatest Class ever to graduate from North, and personally I think we will.

(cont'd) Bill - please try and be good over the summer and don't ever let anything happen to you you are the dearest, sweetest boys I have ever known and you have made me very happy!
What ever turns out for us in the end (I hope it is happy) don't ever forget me.
Before I go, I'll wish you the best of everything & don't ever change!
I'm really looking very forward to this summer. We will have to wash your car again! But I wish you would work harder on it - you don't do a thing? (maybe it is the other way around, & I don't do anything)
anyway - Don't ever forget - I love you,
Shaun & (Suck Dick 255) (Chapman) Rhonda

Bill,
 Best of luck always to one of the sweetest guys I've ever dated. We've had some great times together (if you can remember). I'm sorry things didn't work out about the Prom! I hope things will get back to usual & we'll have a blast this summer.
 Remember when we went together for 3 whole days. We've had some good times & I hope we have some more.

Love ya always

Bill,
 Best of luck in the future to the biggest those great times on and when you pulled

 Have fun this summer

FRESHMAN CLASS

Since Freshman Orientation Week it has been emphasized that the first year of high school is important because it provides the foundation and direction needed for a successful future.

We, as freshmen, are striving to obtain the best education, along with experience, that will enable us to achieve our ultimate goals. We shall be launching many projects this year under the capable leadership of Mrs. Sweeny, the freshman advisor.

It is my sincere belief that with the eager support of the class members, our next three high school years will prove happy and rewarding.

ADMINISTRATION

“The greatest sacrifice is the sacrifice of time.”

What Would North High Be Without the Administration and Faculty? Our Esteemed Principal and Vice-Principal Unify North High, Making It an Efficiently Working Body. The Highly Qualified Teachers Give Up Much of Their Time for the Benefit of Their Students. When the School Day Ends at Three-Thirty, It Is Actually Just Beginning for Our Diligent Faculty Members. Without Our Faithful Secretaries and Coordinators, the School Records Would Certainly Be In a Shambles, and What Would Happen to the Errant Students, if It Were Not for the Guidance Counselors? The Cooks and Custodians, Too, Contribute Significantly to the Smooth Workings of the School.

James R. Lemmert

Principal

Dear Bill
I got to know you very well this year. You spent enough time in my office you little bookkeeper. I'm sorry & had to ask you so many times, but if you didn't smoke so much & screw around I wouldn't have to pick.
Sincerely
John L. Coover

John L. Coover

Vice-Principal

"This is Mr. Coover," boomed the intercom. Our Vice-principal's thundering voice needs no identification. Everyone is familiar with his unique intonation. Our industrious, reliable, jack-of-all-trades does every job you can imagine. In the principal's absence he assumes full responsibility and executes his duties efficiently. Besides his work, Mr. Coover finds time to be a friend to all. Every student thinks Mr. Coover is a real pal. Thanks Mr. Coover for putting up with us!

In his quiet way our principal commands the respect of the students and faculty of North High. Under his capable leadership, our school is running more smoothly than ever before. Taking a keen interest in student problems, he has done much toward furthering better student-faculty relations. He has given much time from his crowded schedule to speak with student leaders in an effort to improve North High in all possible ways. With the last three years as a foundation, North High will continue to prosper under his leadership in the future.

Counselors

MRS. IRENE ANDREWS

MR. ROBERT PEARL

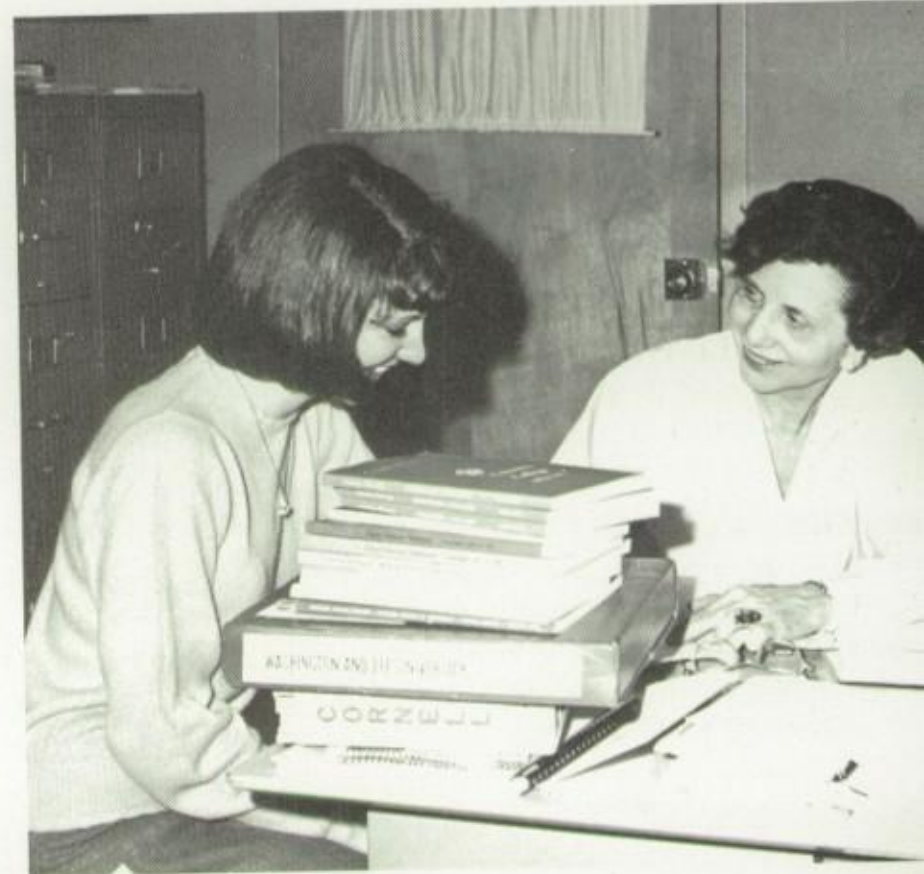

MRS. JEANNETTE BYLER

MR. PAUL BAILEY

Guidance counselors are the possessors of each student's confidential file. They are always willing to listen to problems and often advice.

The Freshman Counselor has a big job trying to guide confused newcomers in a large school. The Sophomore Counselor must help begin planning courses for a student's entire high school career. As early as the Junior year, the students start thinking about college, and, of course, require advice from their counselor. The Senior Counselor is, perhaps, the busiest of all. Her biggest worry is trying to assure students' acceptances into colleges, but with all the work, she still seems to have time for each student and his problems.

Coordinators

MR. ALARIC BOWMAN

MR. RONALD CRISS

When coordinators think of their jobs, they think of kids, kids, kids, then of attendance and, of course, discipline. Despite the unpleasant part of their duties — reprimanding culprits — the coordinators are liked by all the students. They always have a kind word in the halls, except when one is opening his locker at 12:30.

When North High was being planned, everyone realized that it would have to be subdivided in some manner. How could the principal know what was going on in sixty homerooms? The coordinators are, in effect, the heads of four little schools. The work they do is so necessary in a school the size of ours.

English

Our English Department, capably led Miss Martha Seaman, provides English courses suited to every student. In addition to the courses required of all students, classes in Journalism and English Composition are offered.

Freshman and Sophomore English classes initiate the study of literature and concentrate on grammar and vocabulary. Many of the Sophomore teachers are also requiring term papers. The Junior year is spent solely in the study of American Literature, vocabulary, and, of course, term papers. English Literature comprises the Senior English curriculum, and that big Senior term paper become a huge headache.

The Journalism and English Composition classes strive to prepare students better for the difficult composition work that will confront them in college or in careers.

MR. FREDERICK WORMAN    MRS. SARA STOUFFER
MRS. FRANCES SCHNEBLY    MRS. DOROTHY BROWNE

Latin, French, and Spanish comprise the choices afforded to foreign language students. Although Spanish continues to be the most popular, the size of the French classes is growing. Mrs. Stouffer's zealous attitude toward her subject induces more and more students to take third and fourth year Latin. Since the trend seems to be that colleges are requiring at least three years of a foreign language, this department is becoming a thriving segment of our curriculum.

"Egad, you worm," booms the familiar voice of the Senior's friend, Mr. Al Davis, teacher of Contemporary Affairs. He is one of the many capable instructors in North High's Social Studies Department. World History I and II, Problems of Democracy, Sociology, U.S. History, Psychology, World Geography, and Civics are the many divisions of this department. In these classes we study the past, discuss the present, and anticipate and plan for the future. Time's tales form the basis for these "historic" studies.

Have you ever wondered what that horrible smell was as you went to the next period? It was probably the "Chem" class at it again, burning sulfur, or some such obnoxious mixture. Chemistry, Biology, Physics, and General Science are the courses offered by North High's Science Department. Headed by Mr. Richard Jones, this up-to-date group attempts to keep us abreast of the latest developments in the scientific world.

The Industrial Arts Department at North High is one of the most modern and complete in the area. The shops include woodworking, metal working, masonry, graphic arts, electronics, and mechanical drawing.

From such a varied selection there must be one suited to the abilities and desires of everyone. These classes in the process of learning, perform many valuable services to the school. They print tickets, take on many of the responsibilities of the stage and lighting, make needed repairs, and improve the facilities.

The personnel that make up this essential section of our curriculum include those teachers in the fields of music and art. Within the art department, talent in the realms of sculpture, pen and ink sketching, portrait work, and many others are encouraged and developed. This year also witnessed a new addition to the art department, Mr. Gaylord Dillow, who formerly taught drama. The teachers of the music department include those of choral and instrumental music. The choruses, concert and marching bands, and orchestra are the successful by-products of their efforts.

Library Science

The North Hagerstown High School Library offers students an opportunity for research work during the school day. Many new novels and non-fiction books are purchased each year to keep the library up to date with the ever-changing world. The numerous tasks involved in running the library are carried out by Mrs. Doris G. Kresge and students who volunteer their time before and after school and during their free periods.

Mrs. Kresge's helpers include R. Heffren, Y. Jacques, B. Ridenour, B. Rowe, B. Brechbill, N. Filo, L. Stallings, R. Semler, H. Jacot, V. Scudder, R. Powell, B. Whitmore, M. Barnhart, J. Styers, B. Kaetzel, and J. Fignar.

Practical Skills

What could be more practical than driving a car? In an age when things progress so rapidly, one must be able to drive. Our faithful driver's Education teachers must have nerves of iron to maintain composure during all the crises of a day of classes.

Mr. Tom Stoner teaches the special Education classes at North High. Under his supervision these classes learn practical knowledge useful to them in later life. He also provides stimulating diversions such as field trips and soft ball games.

Situated in the main office are the following secretaries; Mrs. Beverly Miller, Miss Priscilla Greiner, Mrs. Eleanor Reeher, Mrs. Elaine Booth and Mrs. Pauline Welsh.

"Can you have this run off for tomorrow, Miss Greiner?" "May I have an outside line, please?"

These requests and many more comprise the everyday rush of activities performed by North High's faithful secretaries and office assistants. They ride the helm of our vast communication's system, both written and verbal. They man the switchboards, print up letters, mimeograph tests, and run errands. For these services and many more, we thank you.

Cafeteria Workers

The ladies of the cafeteria staff are queens in everyone's eyes, especially during the hours of 12:00 to 1:30. They endure jokes about the food and ever-changing teen-age tastes to serve a lunch which always seems to satisfy even the most discriminating taste.

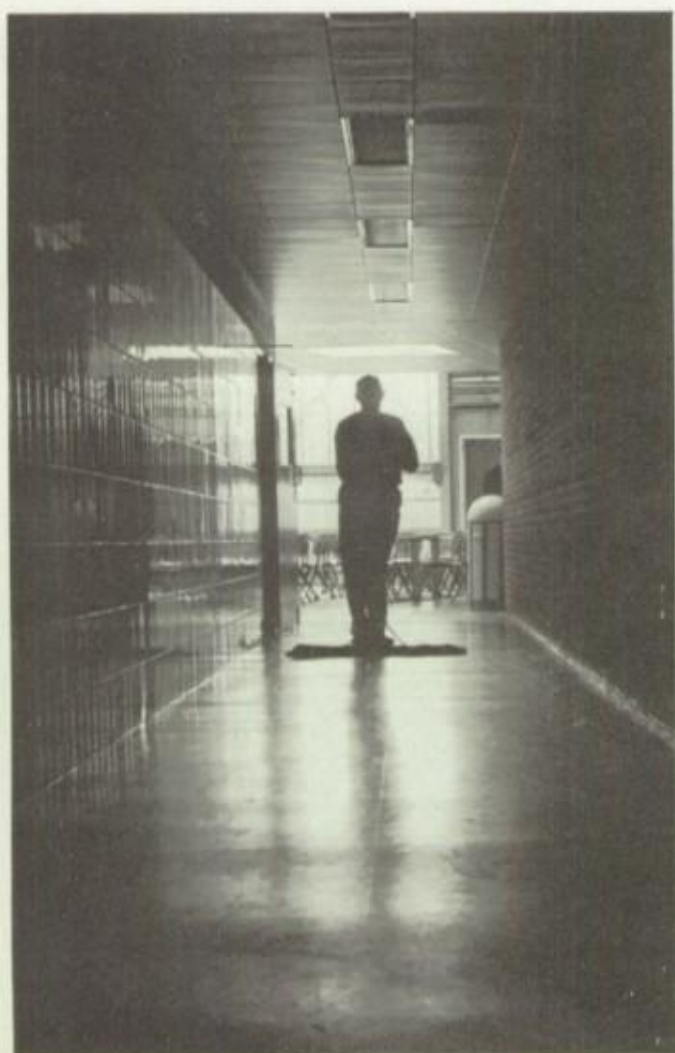

Our jacks-of-all-trades are Mr. Murray, Mr. Knode, Mr. Stouffer, Mr. Itnyre, and Mr. Shrader. Others not present when the picture was taken are Mr. Butts, Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Woodcock, Mr. Day, Mr. Struckman, and Mr. McKenzie.

Custodians

Remember the shambles the General Education Area was when you left it at 3:30? It's neat and clean the next morning, right? This is one of the various tasks performed by North High's hard-working custodial staff. They do everything from opening stuck lockers to the big repair jobs. We are very grateful to them for their work in keeping our school running smoothly.

ORGANIZATIONS

Senate

Parliamentarian STEVE WEST

North High's Student Council has now completed its second year as a bicameral legislature with a Senate including three senators from each class, class officers, and standing committee chairmen. The second body is the General Assembly which includes the Senate and all Homeroom representatives.

Most new ideas go first to the Senate and, if accepted, are put on the agenda for the monthly General Assembly meeting. The senate meets at least twice a month and can use its emergency power to call special meetings. Most work is done, however, through the many committees of the General Assembly.

School dances — Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Sweethearts' are the result of the Social Committee, and the Liaison Committee sees to a better understanding between students and administration. The joint efforts of the Ways and Means and Foster Child Committees make possible money-raising projects to support Nevio Bompensa, our Italian foster child. Without the money from student picture sales and football programs, Freshman Orientation Week would be beanieless, and how would those poor, confused "frosh" find their way around without helpful Student Council NHHS handbooks?

This year the main aim of the Student Council has been to create a sense of school pride throughout North High. Tags bearing the slogan, "Hubs Pain the Rebs," candy-striped trash cans, and the annual canned food drive at Thanksgiving and Christmas all helped to further school spirit. February seventeenth witnessed the school's first exchange day as Waynesboro and North swapped fifteen students for a day.

The most important project undertaken by the Student Council was the planning for a foreign exchange student to come to North High under the American Field Service for the school year of 1966-1967.

Bookstore

North High's Bookstore, initiated and overseen by the Student Council, supplies students with a wide selection of inexpensive paperback books and study aids. Receiving a twenty percent profit on each book sold, the Student Council has set up a scholarship fund given to a deserving Senior upon graduation. The store is operated by students before and after school, and throughout the year various sales are held.

Future Teachers of America

Surrounding Club President Ann Weller as she points out the fundamentals of an education are, Vice-President T. Martin, Treasurer D. McElwee, N. Shank, and Secretary P. Ottinger. Clockwise AROUND THE TABLE are, C. Snyder, J. Spangler, B. Brumback, B. Toms, S. Kerfoot, L. Russell, S. Mowen, K. Beard, S. Hamsher, C. Gibney, D. Rowe, J. O'Brien, M. Hauver and B. McNeal. Gostlow, L. Campbell, N. Loving, D. Townley, J. Mesner, D. Heare, J. Irving and C. Fleagle.

Future Teachers of America acquaints interested students with the opportunities and rewards of a career in teaching. This is done by providing opportunities to work with children and acting as a service club for the staff and students of North High. This year the FTA has sponsored two teas, one for the faculty and another for returning alumni as Christmas. They have served as ushers for many school activities and have provided a tutoring service for Woodland Way Elementary students.

Drama Club

North High's Future Nurses, under the auspices of faculty Advisor Mrs. Hilda Brothers, are now in the process of deciding if their tentatively chosen career of nursing is really what they want. By visiting hospitals, both large and small, and by staging projects such as Operation Warm Christmas in which clothes for the needy were collected, the girls have found a way to better not only themselves, but also the community.

Bill, when you get sick, be sure to come to me and I'll fix you up real good!! After those classes, need some help. Just be sure to stay the way you are because no matter is what, someone is sure to like you. Kathy "68"

Those STANDING are R. Cline, K. Ground, B. Wantz, and Advisors Mrs. Nondis Chestnut and Mr. Robert Koehler. Absent when the picture was taken are Parliamentarian Larry Abraham and Secretary Neal Abraham.

Debating Club

At weekly Friday meetings, Debating Club advisors, Mr. Robert Koehler and Mrs. Nondis Chestnut, try to promote interest and general knowledge concerning debating. In turn the members try to better themselves by instigating thought on contemporary topics and inspecting all aspects of them.

As President John Fuller reads aloud from the Bible, Vice-President B. Clem, J. M. Clipp, D. Litten, and Secretary-Treasurer D. Brumbach contemplate the scriptures.

Bible Club

Although the Bible Club has the fewest members of any club at North High, it is one of the most active. Trying to promote Christian Fellowship throughout our school and community, the members have contributed to the welfare of needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas and have paid a visit to the Home for the Aged at Easter. They plan an annual group project in the spring, often a swim party or hike.

Chess Club

Having originally banded together to play chess among themselves, the Chess Club of North High feels its purpose is basically to teach the fundamentals of their game. Therefore, this all-male club holds weekly instructional classes for girls. Through the collection of dues, the players are afforded an opportunity to attend an annual chess tournament in Baltimore at the end of the school year.

Concentrating on their chess game are President Steve Pressler and Bruce Devall. Observing the contest are, STANDING, C. Cline, B. Wiess, M. Cummings, H. Fiery, S. Fiery, R. Cline, H. Heyser, T. Pressler, F. Fiery, B. Schwartzman, and M. Wiess. SITTING are Secretary-Treasurer J. O'Connor, Vice-President C. Snively and C. Mullins.

Drafting Club

Once a month a member of the drafting club is chosen by a vote of the other members as draftsman of the month. His work is displayed in the cross corridor, and in the spring these monthly winners accompany other members to Detroit to examine and study drafting facilities as used in the auto industry. Although a new organization, the Drafting Club has succeeded in establishing itself as a thriving member of the slate of clubs at North High.

Lighting Club

Without the aid of the lighting crew, it would not be possible for school and community organizations to hold concerts, stage dramatic productions, or plan any activity in our auditorium requiring the use of electrical equipment. The boys are paid for their services and this year plan a year end trip to New York City.

*Bill,

French Club

Hoping to supplement what they learn in class about the French language and culture, many students join the French Club. After they join, most of their time is taken up by selling candy or working at hops, bake sales, or car washes for the ultimate goal — travel to New Orleans at Mardi Gras time or, even better, to Quebec, Canada.

BIA

The Girls Intramural Association organizes class competition, and each year keen rivalry sparks the drive for the GIA title. Volleyball is played in the fall, basketball in the winter, and starting this year, softball in the spring. If enough interest is shown, badminton intramurals will soon begin.

All boys who are interested in playing intramural sports meet, and members of the BIA serve as captains and choose teams. Like GIA, the Boys Intramural Association supervises competition between classes. Volleyball and basketball are part of a program organized to provide athletics to all boys and to develop skill, cooperation, and sportsmanship.

Representatives are J. Griffith, J. Bentz, J. Holzaphfel, R. Lushbaugh, H. Churchey, T. Middlekauff and D. Myers.

Early Birds

Know those girls who bounce on Tuesday and Thursday mornings and then drag to homeroom late? They're the Early Birds! A group of ten girls and one boy, they begin at the crack of dawn to initiate and hopefully later perfect intermediate and advanced techniques on the trampoline. Under the direction of Miss Vivienne Lewis, everything from double and triple routines, cannonballs and cradles, front and back flips, to suicide dives are attempted, often accompanied by hoops, ropes or the very reassuring belts. The product of their efforts comes forth in the spring as they travel to other Schools to display their talents.

Judo Club

The objective of North High's Judo Club is to teach the art of self-defense. Most members, however, agree that their Wednesday night meetings are actually to promote and teach judo as a sport. A shiai, which is a national contest for advance in rank, give members an opportunity to officially vie for advancement from white to brown to black belt.

Demonstrating the Oriental art of Judo are President Frank Fiery, Hohn Klipp, and Mark Swomley. Observing from the bleachers are, ROW ONE, B. Bell, D. Ralls, H. Fiery, V. Stumbaugh, P. Since this was the first year North High's archers banded together as an organized club, they have not engaged in competition with other schools, but they soon hope to do so.

"Ready? Let's go!" Then havoc reigns as cheerleaders and students spark the team on to another victory. During football season it's "Hold 'em, North High, hold 'em!" or "Block that kick!" Basketball fans can't help but hear the strains of "H-U-B-S!" or "If he can't do it, the team can!"

When it comes time for another pep assembly, it is always the cheerleaders who make all the arrangements and spend hours on those crazy skits. That persistent flash of red running from General Area to General Education Area selling shakers, pins, and beanie's is sure to be one of North High's spirited cheerleaders.

See ya!

The Choral Department of North Hagerstown High is headed by Mr. William Makell, and its components include Concert Choir, Sophomore Chorus, Freshman Chorus, the Girls' Glee Club, and the Madrigal Singers. This department is a popular elective and enjoys repeated successes not only in school and city-wide choral performances, but also in its full-scale musical productions, this year's being L'il Abner.

We find the largest, the most diversified, and indeed the most colorful group to be the Concert Choir. This is a varsity organization made up of about eighty junior and seniors. The Concert Choir is known by its impressive although usually disheveled red robes. Its music ranges in style, rhythm, and content from complicated Bach arrangements to Negro spirituals, contemporary renditions of jazz, and popular love songs. Because of its polish and frequently overwhelming performances, the Concert Choir remains a favorite with the student body.

In his sophomore year, the vocal student finds intermediate musical instruction in the Sophomore Chorus. Here, as a part of the regular school curriculum, these students learn more of the background of their music, so that they can interpret it to its fullest degree. And always they are preparing for next year, which brings entrance to the Concert Choir.

The beginning of a vocal career at North High is initiated in the Freshman Chorus. Here ninth grade students find instruction in the intricacies of musical performance. They are taught to read music in various voice parts and voice control. This choir is a preparation for those who wish to graduate to the Sophomore and Concert Choirs.

The Girls' Glee Club, including tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls, presents many programs of music adapted to all female voices. They add to North High's fine variation of musical organizations.

The height of musical excellence at North High is reached by the impressive Madrigal Singers. A hand-picked group of thirteen upperclassmen, the Madrigals enjoy well-deserved praise from not only their school but from the community also. Because of the group's congeniality and flexibility, it has made countless appearances in all types of circumstances from the Men's Reformatory at Christmas to school assemblies, and luncheons for the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs. Polish and precision are Madrigal watchwords. Also between the director and singers there is a give-and-take agreement, undoubtedly accounting for the group's success.

Big Bad Boy Hi. Will Bill my dearest it is all over for us - I finally crashed! Got lost! Home a GREAT summer! I'm sure you will. Any way - and one finally seniors like it or not. I'll be seeing you this summer I'm sure.

Color Guard

Following the marching band wherever it goes, the color guard keeps faithful watch over the sacred red and white of North Hagerstown High. They lead the band on the football field and in parades and this year had the honor of leading the Hagerstown Christmas parade. Led by Captain Debbie Snyder, they cut a striking picture as they bear the flags and "rifles."

Bill, I'm really glad I've become friends with you this year. You're really a doll. Luck to ya all! Love ya! Lindsey (62)

The North Hagerstown High School Orchestra, though not as large or as widely known as the band, is, nevertheless, a hard-working, young member of the Music Department. In three years under the direction of Mr. John Fignar Jr., a fine and accomplished musician himself, the Orchestra has grown from a small but dedicated nucleus of musicians into the beginnings of a fine symphony orchestra. It has performed often for many of the service clubs and other organizations throughout the community, especially during the holiday season, and all those who have heard the orchestra have been pleasantly surprised with the quality of its work and by the progress that has been made.

The string program has gained momentum rapidly at North High, and underclassmen have become increasingly more interested in playing string instruments. Next year with the arrival of many new string players from the junior high schools, prospects are very bright for the Orchestra's continued growth and success. No one denies that complete success for the program will require much hard work, and possibly many years. But with additional student support and through the efforts of Mr. Fignar, who is frequently "pleased but never satisfied" with the Orchestra's progress, there can be little doubt that North High will someday boast one of the finest school orchestras in the state.

Concert Band

Being a member of the North Hagerstown High School Marching and Symphonic Concert Band is a great privilege, but it also entails much hard work. Four years ago the class of 1966 entered the band as Freshmen. At first they were confronted with four weeks of intense summer marching practice to be prepared for the first football game. At the close of the first semester they were digging their way through concert music. Mr. John Fignar, director, kept telling that they would never be prepared in time for the annual Spring Concert with guest soloist, Mr. Warren Covington.

The Class of 1966 welcomed their Sophomore year with a new director, Mr. Harry Swartzbaugh. They went through the same summer routine and football season, and again the band's Spring Concert was a success with Mr. John Fignar as guest soloist. The big moment came, however, when they were invited to perform that summer at the New York World's Fair. The Junior year was highlighted by an invitation from Governor Millard Tawes to represent the state of Maryland at the 1965 Inaugural Parade, and that year the Spring Concert featured the very talented Mr. James Burke. Their Senior year started off with the regular routine, but not for long, for late in September the big Red and White Marching Band was invited to present a half-time show at the Colts-Rams football game in Baltimore. A lot of hard work and extra effort was put forth to make this another successful appearance for the band. The day Seniors returned their uniforms to school was a sad day for most, as it was hard to say good-bye to an old and dear friend of the past four years.

Heiskelite

Here it is! After many long, late hours of planning and rushing to meet deadlines, the 1966 Heiskelite has finally made it.

The work on this yearbook started in the spring of 1965. The staff was chosen and under Barb Mogensen, Editor, and Sally Campbell, Associate Editor, they began their work. Careful study was devoted to the selection of the company and other initial details. The contract was signed, and we were off.

The summer passed quickly as the sectional divisions were decided upon. A theme was selected and the contents of the book were planned around it. A temporary outline of all two-hundred pages was drawn up for later use. Deadlines were announced with fervent promises to our faithful Advisors Mr. Robert Kinsley and Mrs. Erdine Williams to meet these fast approaching dates.

Cover designs and theme characterizations were the job of our "sketchy" Art Editor, Elizabeth Graff. She deftly penciled our vague ideas into workable drawings, suitable for a yearbook. How else could we have ever gotten started on this enormous undertaking?

Before we could carry out any of the ideas we had formulated, preliminary layouts were necessary. Laying out the yearbook was the task of Gwynn Books. This, indeed, is no easy job. The monotony of page after page of pictures was relieved by her ingenious planning and fresh outlook.

New layout designs and modifications of old ones were incorporated in her plans. Because of her work, meaning and interest prevail throughout this book.

Who was that "snappy" camera-bug who caught you in ridiculous poses at the hop, or yawning during history class? Why it was none other than Ronnie Young, our Photographer. He was the one who gave up his time at games and dances to hunt for that interesting shot for the Student Life section, or that picture of our spirited teams in action.

He did his best to help "develop" these into actual photos and, of course, the greatest yearbook ever.

An often over-looked, but nevertheless, vital part of a yearbook is the copy. The pictures would have no meaning; the book would be incomplete without it. Interesting and informative material must be written to tell the story of the year clearly and accurately now and ten years from now. Our Co-Copy Editors, Donna Rosen and Sharon Mowen, have worked hard to bring this story to you. They have done research on clubs and faculty and have spent hours composing these facts into entertaining and enlightening reading. They have done an excellent job in relating the story of North High, 1966.

What do girls know about athletics? Since the answer is "very little," Jeff Chlebinkow is our Sports Editor. Scores of the games and records of all of North High's athletic events were his territory. He faithfully clipped any page of the newspaper containing an article about one of our teams, saving these clippings for an accurate record of their performances.

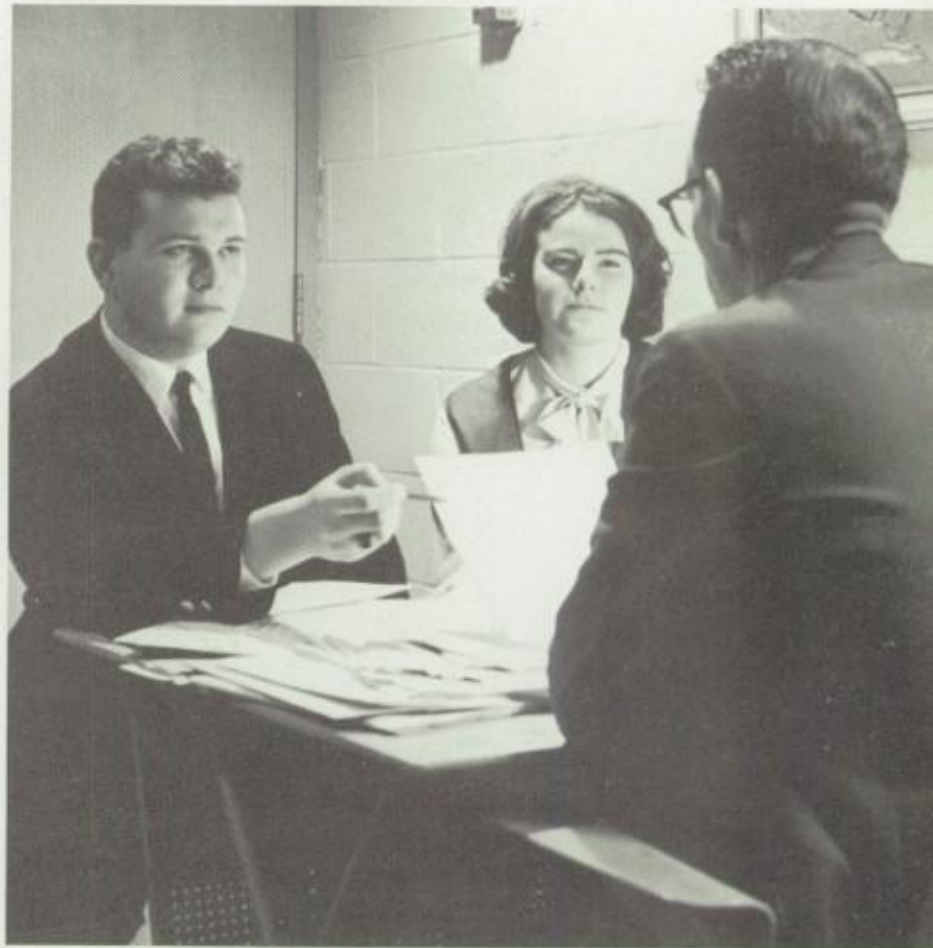

Not only must a yearbook be planned and produced, but it must also be financed. As the ad sales brought in the money, someone was needed to take care of it. Carla Snyder, our capable Business Manager, proved to be this someone. Her accurate bookkeeping kept the Heiskelite funds in order.

Our primary source of income was from our ad sales. Sparked by Advertising Managers, Karl Wolf and Nancy Thompson, the Heiskelite Ad Staff spent their summer months enthusiastically selling advertising space to local concerns. Through their diligent efforts, we achieved the highest sales record in the yearbook's history.

Bill - Another year gone - Thank God!
 Never forget all the fun this year got the B.A. [Coff 45] in the fall, [Slurp Gin] in the winter, [Snoopy] in the spring, [Vodka] in the summer.
 Keep swingin' kid [Vodka] Ad Staff
 - You know
 all the rest,
 love up both

As Marcia Gossard explains a clause in the advertising contract to Barbara Toms, the rest of the staff looks on. They include D. Germ-roth, C. Clutz, J. Spangler, L. Hoachlander, R. Whiteley, S. Hilton, D. Heare, C. Renner, M. Prisak, and L. Bloom.

The yearbook budget cannot survive on ad sales alone. Every yearbook contract includes a specified number of books to be sold. The Sales Staff, under Anne Latimer, Sales Manager, successfully reached the goal of fifteen hundred yearbooks. For weeks the school was plastered with signs imploring each and every student to "Buy a Heiskelite!". Anne should not only be commended for her efficient organization of these sales, but also should receive recognition for her direction of Senior picture taking. The schedule proceeded smoothly, in spite of the many cancellations and reschedulings. Anne, along with various members of the staff and Senior helpers, took care of the bookkeeping chores, while Mr. Richard Myerly took care of the photography.

Jim Mehallick*

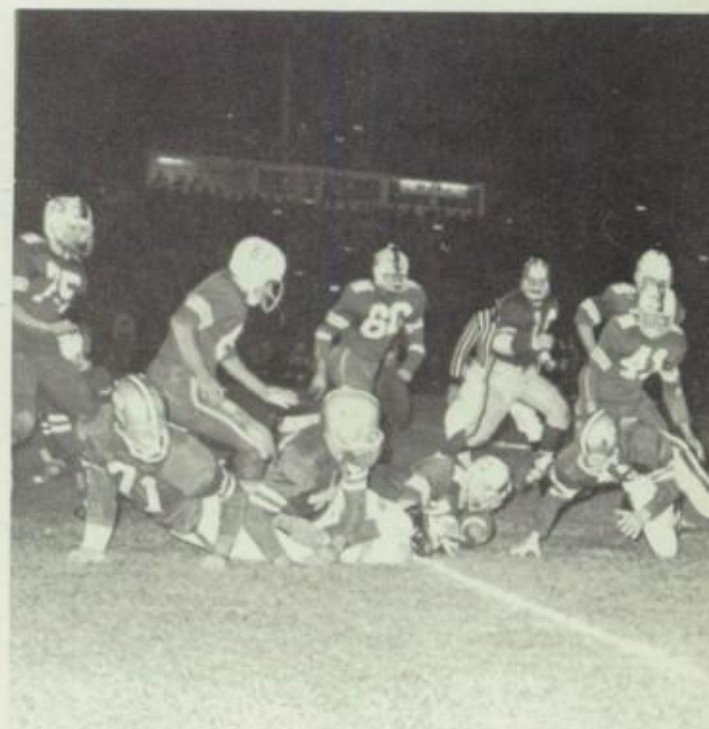

Under the guidance of Coaches Jim Orr, Richard Harris, and Tom Martin, many shining events took place to brighten up North High's '65 football season. The very first game Bruce Devall scored three times as the Hubs smashed Brooklyn Park 27-0; a great defense produced many games in which North was defeated only by a slight margin and came through with many goal line stands like those against Frederick, Martinsburg, and Allegany; and Jerry Baker carried for 149 yards, scoring two touchdowns and throwing one as the Hubs beat Boonsboro for our second victory.

Throughout the season names like tackles Tim Middlekauff, Richard Bean, and Kirk Grooms; center Gary Hoachlander; linebackers Mike Devall and Jerry Spessard; halfbacks Bruce Devall and Jerry Baker; fullback Hal Churchey; quarterbacks Greg Wolber, Marty Sauble, and Greg Stevens; guard Ron Delauter; and ends Joe Rhyne, John Beck, and John Bentz were talked about on radio broadcasts, news reports, and in sports articles.

When the time came for the Tri-State League to select an all-star team, Tim Middlekauff, North Co-Captain, was named to starting positions on both offensive and defensive teams. North Co-Captain Gary Hoachlander, Hal Churchey, Tom Elgin, Bruce Devall, and Marty Sauble all received honorable mentions.

*Bill,
Best of luck to a real great guy.
Never forget our swinging tomorrow and English class. Don't forget all the fun we had out of school to. Be good?, and I'll see you

North High's Junior Varsity Football squad, under Coaches Bob Johnson and Michael Sweeney, although producing a 2 & 5 season, showed promise in providing talent for next year's varsity squad. Defensively the team was led by linebackers Dennis Ditmer and Dave Elliott, ends Jimmy and Archie Staymates, and halfback Roger Barnes. Offensively, halfbacks Roger Barnes and Jimmy Staymates, right tackle Bill Emerson, right guard Dennis Ditmer, and left end Dave Elliott have done an outstanding job. All these boys, besides a number of others, combined their efforts for great games against Martinsburg, Waynesboro, Frederick, and others.

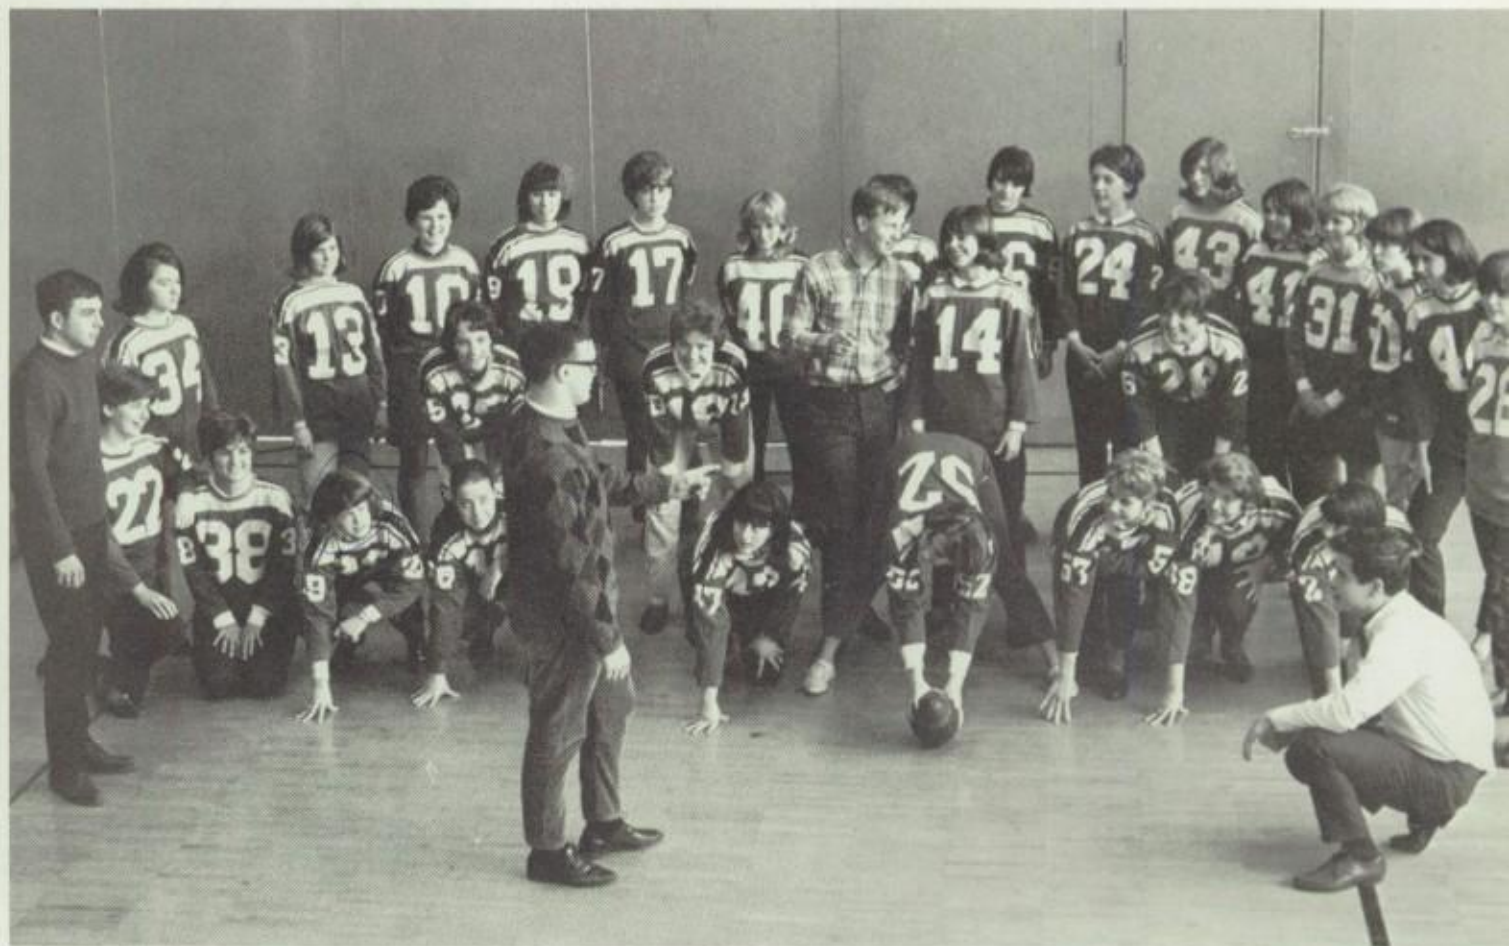

For the first time at North High, a freshman football team has been formed. Coached by Robert Johnson and Michael Sweeney, these baby Hubs were given the chance to get some real experience before playing Junior Varsity football. Led offensively by Bernie Clutz and Todd Cox, and defensively by Barry Chlebnikow and Chris Brown, the team came up with a winning season by beating Mercersburg Academy's freshman team 12-0 and deadlocking South High's freshman team at 0-0.

Freshman ROW ONE includes players K. Rice, D. Elgin, T. Cox, C. Brown, B. Chlebnikow, B. Clutz, and N. Long. ROW TWO includes L. Lettig, D. Taylor, R. Sampsell, M. Spickler, R. Petty, G. Huntsberry, N. Cummings. In ROW THREE are J. Worden,

As coaches Greg Wolber, Tim Middlekauff, Greg Stevens, and Danny Bikle attempt to instruct, the defensive line — B. Bristow, P. Baker, P. Wollard, V. Hopwood, Co-captain Dotty Buys, S. Johnston, K. Webb, Co-captain Karen Pryor, L. Martin, D. Aycoth, D. Wolford, and S. Worthington — attempts to absorb. Others looking on are D. McElwee, P. Toomey, T. Gist, T. Kees, J. Harper, K. Witte, C. Lively, B. Creek, T. Martin, L. Buss, S. Eyerly, J. Irving, A. Latimer, J. Knox, M. Comstock, and C. Schaffer.

R. Munson, B. Grimm, R. Taymund, M. Springer, G. Frank, and M. Wiess. Coach Michael Sweeney, J. Kirk, S. Mayes, B. Martin, and Coach Robert Johnson are seated in ROW FOUR.

Once again Powderpuff Football was on the scene at Hubland. The Hubettes, captained by Dotty Buys and Karen Pryor, were coached by a number of varsity football players. The team, although only playing one game, did outstandingly well as they beat Boonsboro for the first time 13-12 in a sudden death play-off. Using power-sweeps, they moved well over the field and scored the winning points. Next year should see some more winning as a number of girls will return to the squad.

According to Coach Joe Proksa, this year's team and season was "a pleasant delight." The Hubs caught fire early with an unexpected string of victories, 9 in all, and were praised long and loud. The team as a whole was put together with sheer effort and desire rather than ability. This was very evident in their first loss to a powerful Chambersburg team, when they played their best game of the year against superior height and experience — losing by a score of 54-52. Steve Noren, Ed Kipe, Danny Sterling, and John Bentz played smart, aggressive ball, but it was Jerry Baker who came into his own with a "super effort on the boards."

Another highlight of a very successful season was the final game when the Hubs, especially Johnny Bentz, revenged an early season loss to a good Frederick team before a home crowd with a thrilling second-half effort by winning 47-44, thus clinching second place in the Tri-State League with a 9 win and 3 loss record, second only to our cross-town rivals, South High.

The season record of 15 and 6 is a "great tribute" to the entire team for their cooperative effort and unselfish team play. Each player had his outstanding game, for instance, Danny Sterling's 24 point performance against Walkersville and Johnny Bent's outstanding effort in the final game against Frederick. And who will forget Senior Ed Kipe's fine contribution of a 149 point total for the season. Steve Noren, the Hub's other co-captain besides Danny Sterling, missed the final 5 games and his 100% hustle was missed in these games.

In addition to those already mentioned, the juniors Allan Gesser, Marty Sauble, and Jimmy Davis are looked upon with favor for their fine playing. Coach Proksa looks forward to more "delight" from these boys since they will be back next year.

A most successful future is wished to the departing seniors. Danny Sterling, Ed Kipe, Steve Noren, Tom Stough, and Steve-baby Pressler, and Coach Joe Proksa wishes that all those who will play varsity ball next year will grow at least 7 feet tall!

Junior Varsity KNEELING are T. Smith, J. Latimer, T. Pressler, A. Staymates, J. Staymates, C. Noll, H. Carey, S. Klipp, B. Cook. STANDING are Manager Tim Tewalt, Coach Paul Swartz, J. Kline, D. Farley, D.

Bearinger, C. Bowen, J. Beck, D. Mumma, J. Lockhart, R. Mogensen, and Manager R. Lushbaugh.

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team, under Coach Paul Swartz, did exceptionally well, for they compiled a 19-3 record (spotlighted by two big victories over South High) and were Tri-State and City J.V. Champions. John Beck led the team with his rebounding and Archie Staymates was top scorer. John Lockhart and Don Mumma sparked the squad with their sharp defensive and offensive play, while Chip Bowen was high in all departments. If this year is any sign, North High can look forward to many more years of winning basketball.

Under the coaching of Robert Johnson, the Freshman Basketball Team showed much promise for the years to come as they produced a 12-3 record. Led by Bernie Clutz, George Frank, and Dennis Gesser, the little-little Hubs proved themselves by winning most of their games by over thirty points on the average. North High can expect many more victories in the years to come.

Freshman The members of the team include B. Schwartzman, B. Jones, R. Rice, N. Long, D. Gesser, G. Poffenberger on the FIRST ROW. On the SECOND ROW are Coach Robert Johnson, B. Harper, M. Howard, B. Clutz, R. Hull, G. Frank, M. Spickler, T. Cox, and Manager Robin Witt.

Varsity Runners SEATED on the ground are N. Abraham, R. Voltz, and C. Long. Those STANDING are Coach Paul Swartz, D. Long, M. Cummings, L. Abraham, J. Metzner, and D. Bachtell.

Cross-Country Track

The purpose of Cross-Country Track is to boost distance runners in regular track. Besides posting a 3-3 record, this year's squad participated in CVAL, Tri-State, and, for the first time, the state track meet. Charles Long, Ray Voltz, Mark Cummings, Neal Abraham, Jeff Metzner, and Doug Bachtell were among the outstanding runners, and since only Bachtell and Voltz will be lost due to graduation, the prospect for next year looks bright.

Junior Varsity KNEELING are J. Neikirk, K. Staley, T. Jenkins. Those STANDING are Coach Paul Swartz, M. Smith, K. Rudisell, L. Laird, M. Myers, P. Mils, R. Vaughn, and L. Doucette.

The members of the track team sitting on the FIRST ROW are C. Long, J. Metzner, N. Abraham, J. Poole, J. Spector, J. Neikirk, and T. Jackson. KNEELING are R. Mogensen, D. Myers, J. McCullough, R. McClaine, J. Davis, M. Cummings, D. Fraley, and L. Abraham. STANDING are T.

Jenkins, D. Gardner, P. Henry, J. Smith, K. Grooms, D. Sterling, J. Cossick, J. Beck, C. Ruby, D. Bachtell, B. Martin, and Coach Jim Orr. KNEELING at right are returning lettermen S. Moses, B. Devall, S. Noren, R. Voltz, M. Devall, and D. Long.

Track

Coach Jim Orr has stated that this year was one of rebuilding for North High's Track Team, since last year's graduating class took with it many outstanding track stars. This year was bright in the sprints with Seniors Bruce Devall and Steve Moses returning, in the two-mile run with Senior Denny Long and Sophomore Jeff Metzner, and in the 880 yard run with Seniors Ray Voltz and Doug Bachtell. Other likely top competitors were Junior Mike Devall, Sophomore John Beck, and Seniors Steve Noren and Tim Middelkauff. The team was lacking good hurdlers, a necessary part of a track squad; nevertheless, the team has progressed with all our luck.

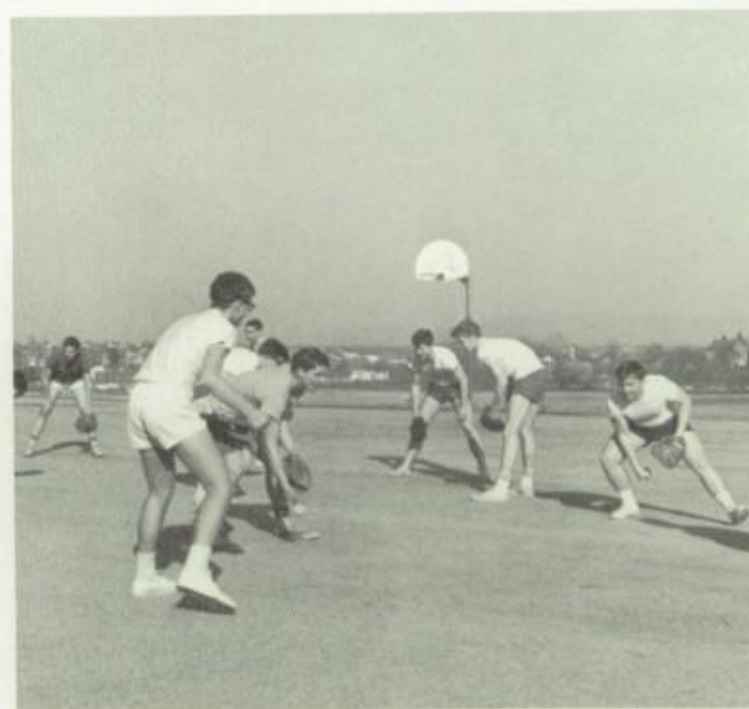

This picture was taken at a meeting of Baseball Team tryouts.

Baseball

The Hub Baseball team, under the leadership of Coach Robert Johnson, was quite a sound team since it was built around a number of returning and experienced players. Along with the advancing J.V.'s, this group formed the nucleus of an excellent defensive team. Also Tom Elgin, Kirk Rohrer and John Humbertson carry most of the load of pitching responsibilities. All in all it was another successful season for the Hub diamond men.

Wrestling

As Co-captains Gary Hoachlander and Ronnie Delauter demonstrate a hold instructed by Coach Richard Harris, the other members look on. SITTING and KNEELING are S. Wilson, K. Bradford, R. McKenzie, E. LaPole, M. Macht, R. Oliver, B.

Emerson, and B. Devall. STANDING are W. Cassidy, K. Rice, W. Moffatt, M. Summers, T. Keckler, B. Beckner, G. Thompson, S. Moses, J. Bowman, M. Creek, R. Delauter, D. Myers, R. Keckler, and L. Henry.

North High has just completed its first full year of wrestling, and it was a year of building. Coach Richard Harris and those who participated in wrestling deserve a lot of credit because it was truly tough getting started in a new sport. The practices were hard and strenuous, and there was always the problem of weight-watching since keeping in the same weight class is very necessary. Next year's team should be much improved for most of this year's squad will return.

Tennis

Tennis is one of the fastest growing spring sports at North High, and interest in it has increased rapidly since its beginning in 1963.

This year's team, coached by Mr. Gaylord Dillow, consists of a strong squad of returning lettermen, who have been starters for the past three years. Such boys as Jim Holzaphel, Randy Bottenus, Robbie Cochran, Jim Staymates, and others led the team to what was a very successful season.

R. Botenus and J. Holzaphel are holding rackets while J. Hansboro, R. Cochran, J. Staymates, D. Diffenderfer, J. Griffith, B. Macht, D. Rosen, and Coach Gaylord Dillow are STANDING behind.

Golf

With the graduation of last year's Senior class, most of the golf team was lost. Only Tom Statton, a fourth-year man, returned as captain. Because of this loss, this year was one of rebuilding. Coach Ron Phillips worked with some Sophomores and Juniors to develop them into a team comparable to those of past seasons. In the past the Hub linkmen have never been below second place in the Tri-State League and have had records like the 12-2 record of last season. After this year of formation, the North High golf team are again leaders in the area.

The golfers KNEELING are Coach R. Phillips, L. Graff, D. Bearringer, and J. Baer. Those STANDING are Tallman, Captain Tom Statton, J. Wright, R. Hamilton, R. Young, and C. Grice.

STUDENT LIFE

"For everything there is a season,

and a time for every purpose under heaven:

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Therefore, North High's varied activities program affords no excuse for idleness.

The many clubs and organizations throughout the school plan regularly scheduled hops and dances. Student Council affairs are a welcome change from the hops, both of which fill the weekends with inviting entertainment. North High's sports events are well attended by her spirited student body, who avidly support her fighting teams.

The highlight of the season is the Junior-Senior Prom, a fabulous finale to a wonderful year.

Other unplanned, but nevertheless integral, parts of the Hub extracurricular program are student gatherings. Every morning and afternoon the class areas are filled with chattering students, catching up on all the latest gossip. School assemblies, guest speakers, and pep rallies are also included in the calendar of a well-rounded Hub.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1965 could hardly be forgotten by anyone who attended. It will be even harder to forget by those who worked for over a year to produce North High's best Prom ever! As committee co-chairman, Johnny Baer and Janet Carroll had no easy task. Just keeping track of all those flowers would be headache enough for anyone.

After almost two years of working for points to assure a position on the decorating committee, about thirty Juniors of the Class of '66 found themselves surrounded by a sense of pride and amazement as each step in the building was completed. First, cheesecloth was put up to cover any hints of a high school gym; next, diligently worked on murals were put up in the gym and in "A"; and, finally, the two most important parts, Munchkinland and Emerald City, were elected.

Even though faculty class advisors Miss Patricia Dantzic and Mr. Gerald Hammond had a hard time getting decorators to abandon work to get some sleep, most found they still had some energy left to enjoy the much looked forward to Saturday night.

The Land of Oz

Prom night — it finally came! May twenty-third, nineteen hundred sixty-five and over a thousand young people, parents, and teachers were delightfully surprised as they walked the yellow brick road to an exquisite Emerald City. Although the Wizard of Oz himself was not present, Dorothy and Toto mingled with the dancers as they frugged or listened to the fabulous Crystals.

And, oh, the tears when Sunday afternoon everything was torn down. "A" cafeteria was stripped of all its lovely Munchkin houses; the tin man, the cowardly lion, and the scarecrow all disappeared forever, and the shimmering elegance of the gym the night before vanished from view. Still the memories remain and linger on . . .

The 1965 Homecoming Court

Senior football players and their candidates for queen are Gary Hoachlander and Sally Campbell, Hal Churchey and Diane Long, Rick Keckler and Debbie Snyder, Ronnie Phillips and Linda Wilson, Richard Bean and Mary Jane Grum-bine, Greg Stevens and Donna Rosen, Tim Middlekauff and Diane Middlekauff, Bruce Devall and Kathy Vetter, Ron Delauter and Sue Chaney, John Cossick and Claudia Coble, Ron Baer and Carol Griffith, Denny Long and Patsy Keedy, Jeff Smith and Wendy Kovaleski, and Danny Bikle with Queen Nancy Hayes. Absent when the picture was taken are Steve Moses and Dorothy Strothers.

It's Friday afternoon, October twenty-fifth, and upperclassmen are assembled in the auditorium. Each Senior football player escorts his choice for the Homecoming Court down the aisle and onto the stage; the tension mounts. Mr. Davis hands the coveted envelope to Gary and Timmy, and they proceed to inform the lucky girl. Well, c'mon, guys. Who is she? Nancy Hayes — North Hagerstown High School's Homecoming Queen for 1965!

Yes, we all remember that thrilling moment, and certainly Queen Nancy is one who will never forget the crown . . . cape . . . roses . . . applause. With escort Danny Bikle standing by to hold a few of the more awkward gifts, Nancy was honored by most of the clubs and organizations at North High.

Despite a torrential downpour the festivities didn't end there. The following Monday evening the postponed North High-Waynesboro game was played. The sound of horns announced the Homecoming Court as they were police escorted across town in convertibles. Upon arriving at the stadium, the caravan circled the track while the announcer provided commentary. The girls viewed the game from a platform on the field and were honored by a special half-time performance.

The Sweethearts

North High's annual Sweetheart Dance, commemorating Valentine's Day, is a much looked forward to event, especially so by Seniors. This year's was no exception.

Each Senior homeroom selected a boy and girl to reign on the court. From these thirteen couples a king and queen were chosen by a vote of the Seniors. The results were not announced until the night of the dance — King and Queen of the Sweethearts Court, Carolyn Noel and Tom Pemberton.

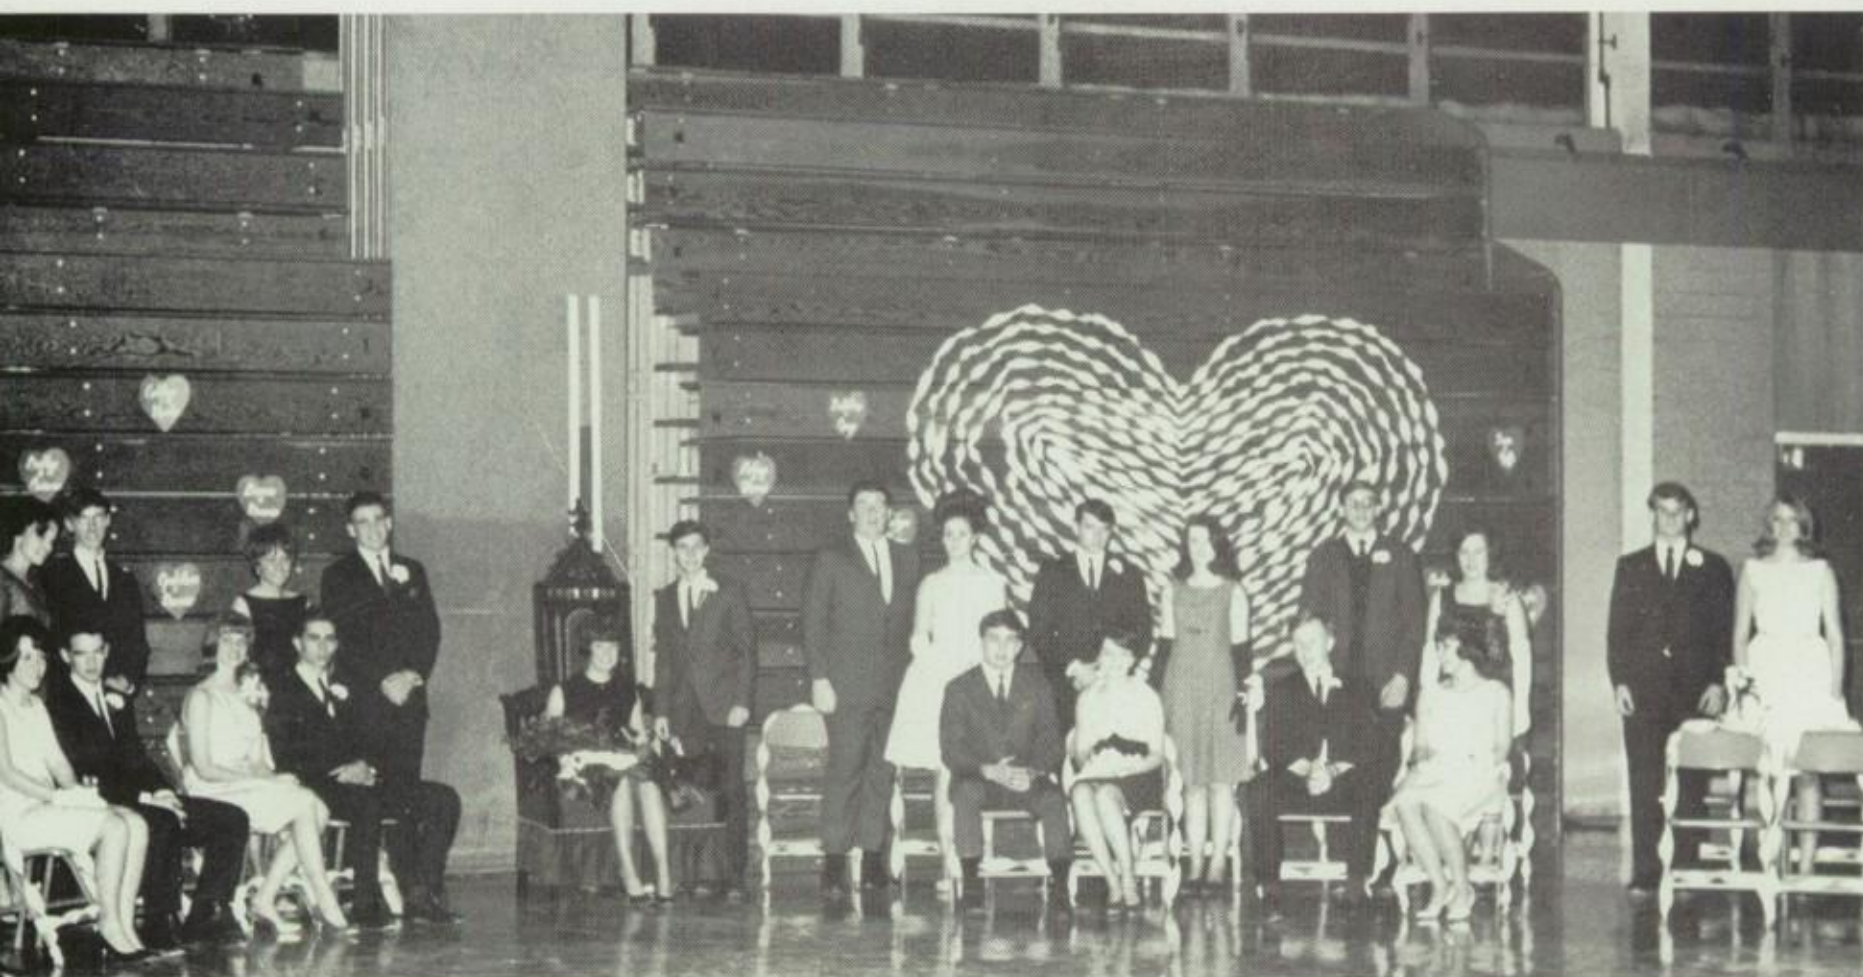

The charming couple led the first dance as the rest of the court joined in. A fabulous beginning to a fabulous evening!

Dance

Couples selected to reign on the court are Diane Middlekauff and Denny Long, Dotty Buys and Brian Borst, Cheryl Shaffer and Steve Pressler, Gretchen Doarnberger and Denny Draper, Kathy Vetter and Mark Swomley, Margaret Hoover and Gary Hoachlander, Queen

Reserve year 11

Dear Bill,

Well my sophomore year is almost over, but you have made it complete! These past few weeks have been the happiest of my whole year. You and exciting. I'll never forget my very first date with you. We were going to the drive-in, but then I remember stopping at Martins for a chicken, but then getting a box of crackers. I would do something wrong and I wanted so very much for everything to turn out right. Boy that movie! She one with the Baboons and cross-eyed hon! You never did see that monster movie did you? Then the next time we went to the hop with Lynda & Bernie! You got so mad at me that night + yet we still got things worked out! And then that night + yet the car! I was so disappointed! After that sat. you lost I'm glad you enjoyed yourself. Then Boy was that prom over when Patli was here. Now we come to say about that except I sure had fun that night. You and Rick came with Lynnda & Bernie! You got so mad at me that night + yet we still got things worked out! And then that night + yet I don't think I have ever laughed so hard in my whole life! That martini was certainly a new offer. I still get embarrassed!! Well, that is enough for the past I just wanted you to know with much I enjoyed myself. Oh well, I guess I have to Christen that "quen bag", even though now I guess I won't have as much of the summer as I had thought - the times we do go out - we sure will have fun!

"This is an age in which the struggle is for the minds of men; a struggle between peoples of different races, culture and history; a struggle in which all those who love freedom will do all they can to establish at least a powerful mental alliance amongst themselves against the forces of tyranny. Let us each — yourself and myself — all of us — work toward the goal that in the end we may live in peace and good will together."
